EIGHT ROUTED FROM BURNING HOME FRIDAY

Eight persons escaped Friday night when fire broke out in a two-story, seven-room weather-board tenant house owned by Roy Heckenluber, near Arendtsville.

The fire burned out the basement dining room and kitchen, while water and smoke damaged other parts of the house.

Mrs. Casto Cordero, who with her husband and their four children and sister-in-law, Carmeneva Rivera, and her two-year-old daughter, Sonia, resided in the house, this morning gave this version of the blaze:

The family had retired shortly before 10 o'clock. A short time later they smelled "something peculiar, not exactly like smoke."

A quick search through the house and cellar revealed nothing amiss and the family went back upstairs. BASEMENT IN FLAMES

About five minutes later smoke rolled up the stairs. Mr. Cordero rushed downstairs and found smoke and flame rolling from the basement. He called to the others to leave the house.

Mrs. Cordero grasped her three-year-old son and 17-month-old daughter while the husband gathered the other children. As Mrs. Cordero was going downstairs the lights failed and she fell, losing her grip on three-year-old Dennis.

She looked for Dennis and a way out.

She reached her husband who was breaking a window. He crawled out and she started handing children out to him, cutting her hands and arms.

Mr. Cordero returned inside in search of his niece, Sonia, whom he found in her bedroom. He escaped with her.

Arendtsville firemen searched the house for a youngster who was believed inside but she was found later outside.

Some of the children were affected by the heavy smoke.

The family is residing temporarily with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Heckenluber, next door.

TO TELEPHONE FOLK MISSED IN UF DRIVE

A number of Gettysburg residents will receive phone calls Monday night from the community's United Fund office asking if they wish to make contributions to this year's campaign to raise funds for support of a number of local organizations.

Richard Guise of the United Fund campaign committee said today that "great numbers of persons were not at home when the canvassers made their visits to the homes of the community. We are adopting the telephone method in an attempt to reach them."

The United Telephone Co. has donated use of several phones to the United Fund office in the Red Cross office on Baltimore St. and as a result a group will be there Monday night to phone as many as they can of the persons who were not previously contacted.

HAVE 90 PCT. OF GOAL

A group of college students have volunteered their time and cars and will be waiting outside the United Fund office to speed to the home of anyone who wishes to make a contribution and says "come and get it now."

Approximately 90 per cent of the United Fund's goal of approximately $32,000 has been secured, Guise said, and it is hoped that the phone calls Monday night might raise enough to help put the drive over the $30,000 mark. If Monday night's phone call program proves successful it will "be continued for several more nights."

Guise said among recent amounts received by United Fund are $308 donated by local workers at Letterkenny and $37 from local workers at Fort Ritchie.

NEW TALK OF MERGER OF 2 SEMINARIES

The suggestion raised from time to time over at least a quarter of a century — that the Gettysburg and Philadelphia Lutheran Seminaries be merged, is proposed again in a report by Dr. Conrad Bergendoff, executive secretary of the board of Theological Education of the Lutheran Church in America.

Dr. Bergendoff's suggestion is described in news reports concerning a proposed reduction in the number of Lutheran seminaries in the U.S.

LONG RANGE PROPOSAL

The Board of Theological Education of the Lutheran Church in America, following a year-long study, has proposed a reduction in the number of LCA seminaries in this country from nine to four, and has suggested raising academic standards of theological education.

Describing some of the seminaries as "fortresses of the past," Dr. Conrad Bergendoff, executive secretary of the board, said, "We should plan our program on the supposition that there will be no great difference between seminaries of the LCA and those of the American Lutheran Church and Missouri Synod."

His long range proposal considers as one institution the Lutheran Theological Seminaries at Philadelphia and Gettysburg.

He noted that besides the nine LCA seminaries in this country and two in Canada, the ALC has three seminaries in the United States and one in Canada, and the Missouri Synod two seminaries here.

POSTPONE DINNER

The meeting of the Gettysburg Travel Council originally scheduled to be held Tuesday has been postponed for one week, to December 10, it was announced today. The session will be held at the Five Star Restaurant starting with dinner at 6:30 o'clock.

"While church attendance and financial assets are at the highest peak in the history of the world," he said, the basic problems of the layman remain untouched. He referred to the city of Dallas, Texas, as a "church city," adding, "This city of churchmen allowed bigotry and

1ST SNOWFALL IN MOUNTAINS UP TO 8 INCHES; PLOWS ARE OUT

Winter came blustering into Adams County Friday evening and this morning, dumped snow in some areas up to eight inches deep, skipped the eastern section of the county and sent the mercury dipping to 34 degrees at 8 a.m. at Gettysburg.

It was the first tough taste of winter for 1964 and caught most of the county completely by surprise. Rain had fallen for most of the last two days and despite the forecast of probable snow flurries most of the county was not prepared for the plunge into cold weather and the fall of snow.

Mike McGlaughlin, early morning dispatcher at the highway maintenance garage, reported the following snowfall:

Blue Ridge Summit area, eight inches.

Mount Newman, four inches.

Brysonia and Wensville area, two to four inches.

Heavy rains fell elsewhere in the county.

SNOW CREWS OUT

Snow removal crews at the highway garage were called out at 10:30 o'clock Friday and 44 men were dispatched to the snow-covered areas where plows kept all roads open. There were no reports of blocked roads.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning some highway workers were still out but were expected to return to the garage before noon.

At Brysonia electric current was disrupted at 7:30 o'clock this morning from the weight of the snow on lines. Metropolitan Edison workmen were able to restore service to about 25 affected families in the area by 10 o'clock.

POWER LINES DOWN

Current was interrupted in the York Springs area Friday evening from 9:30 to 11 o'clock when lines were blown down by high winds that accompanied heavy rainfall during the afternoon and evening. Rain at the Arendtsville Fruit Research Laboratory was reported at two and a half inches during the 24-hour period. Snow flurries were reported in that area this morning but there was no accumulation.

Residents of Mt. Carmel learned early this morning that they were

SHORTAGE OF RAINFALL CUT BY NOVEMBER

End-of-the-month showers that totaled more than two inches made November the wettest month here this year and gave it a surplus of nearly two inches of rain above normal rainfall.

It was the wettest November here in 11 years and the warmest since 1948.

Rainfall here this month amounted to 5.37 inches which brought the total for the first 11 months to 28.32 inches. The year remains 10.73 inches short of normal precipitation.

Following a rainless October, the first month in Gettysburg's recorded weather history to go without rainfall, the month of November had measurable amounts of rain on 11 of its 30 days. The month's surplus of rain was 1.98 inches.

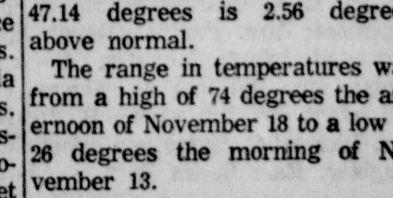

RANGE FROM 74 TO 26

March and June were the only other months this year that had above normal rainfall and the driest of all was October. November opened with the year more than a foot short on rainfall.

November of last year also had surplus rain. Its total was 4.09 inches or seven-tenths of an inch short of normal.

The daily average high temperature this month was 56.3 degrees and the daily low readings averaged 37.97 degrees. November's average temperature of 47.14 degrees is 2.56 degrees above normal.

The range in temperatures was from a high of 74 degrees the afternoon of November 18 to a low of 26 degrees the morning of November 13.

VENEZUELAN JAM STREETS ELECTION EVE

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Thousands of Venezuelans jammed the streets of Caracas in a rousing windup of the presidential election campaign today, defying Communist and Castro threats to shoot them down.

The seven candidates, meanwhile, policed right down to Friday's midnight deadline. The election, to select a successor to pro-Western President Romulo Betancourt, is Sunday.

Terrorists of the pro-Castro Armed Forces for National Liberation (FALN) Friday warned the city's population of 1.5 million to remain indoors from midnight Friday until Monday or face the possibilities of being shot.

IGNORE THREATS

The FALN is trying to frighten the population from voting and thus gain a legal basis for declaring the election invalid. Venezuelans paid little attention to the threats.

Still ringing in the voters' ears was Betancourt's charge that Fidel Castro's Cuba had committed aggression against Venezuela by supplying the FALN with over three tons of arms.

The arms were discovered buried in a beach near Caracas Nov. 2.

Cuba and its Soviet allies claim the charge was a "provocation" against Cuba, but the United States and most of the Latin-American nations are siding with Betancourt.

NO SUCCESSION

Betancourt is constitutionally prevented from succeeding himself, but the candidate of his Democratic Action party, Raul Leoni, is believed a sure winner. There was doubt, however, if the party could win a congressional majority without which stable government may be difficult.

The FALN continued holding Col. James K. Cheneault, deputy chief of the U.S. military mission, and threatened to harm him unless the government releases 71 terrorists, including six that were arrested after they hijacked a plane and flew to Trinidad Thursday.

The terrorists, who abducted Cheneault from outside his house Wednesday, originally promised to release him unharmed to day.

hated to run rampant in its streets.

He continued, "The church today does not attempt to deal with the problems of the world such as race prejudices. It is a place of rest from the problems of the times. It no longer offers guidance. It only gives the comfort and security of a warm bed on a rainy night."

TOURED BATTLEFIELD

Dr. Bauer presented his second lecture this afternoon, after which the group toured the Gettysburg Battlefield as guests of the National Park Service. The Rev. George W. The international exchange program currently is sponsoring more than 200 foreign students who are attending universities and theological seminaries throughout the U.S. The program also provides foreign study for American seminaries. It was founded in 1952 after the second assembly of the World Lutheran Church in Hannover, Germany.

EXPAND PLAN

Under Dr. Wick's supervision the program has been expanded since 1959 to include the students' families as an integral part of the plan, which incorporates the training of lay personnel, such as doctors and engineers, as well as clergymen. Another branch permits foreign field workers to visit in the U. S. as part of the American cultural program.

The group assembled Wednesday in Washington, D. C., where they observed Thanksgiving. They have been studying in this country since September.

The group included Mrs. Stefano Moshi, wife of the bishop of the Lutheran Church of North Tanganyika and president of the United Lutheran Church of the Republic. She and her husband are guests of the U. S. government and the LCA.

News Briefs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — They tell us this is the age of regimentation. And bless us, even Santa Claus has to follow rules these days.

Some of Santa's rules, of course, are self-imposed — such as: don't make scary faces at the kiddies.

But there are others. Lt. Col. Paul H. Nolte of the Volunteers of America spelled them out Friday in graduation exercises for 25 sidewalk Santa Clauses who'll ring bells for donations to make Christmas merrier for the less fortunate.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Attorney James P. McArdle was unable to speak at a memorial service for the late President Kennedy in Allegheny County Common Pleas Court Friday because of a telephone threat on his life about four hours before the ceremony.

NEW YORK (AP) — Security measures aimed at safeguarding the lives of governors were tightened in some states in the wake of President John F. Kennedy's assassination last week, an Associated Press survey showed today.

Many other states declined to beef up their security details, however, in the belief that their chief executive already was well enough guarded.

Some states reported studies under way to determine if tighter security should be adopted.

ASKS PROMPT RETURN OF VA REPORT FORMS

Adams County Veterans Affairs Director Ira M. Bollman today noted that those who receive Veterans Administration pension benefits in the county will also receive a questionnaire card, probably Monday. He urged the recipients to complete immediately both sides of the card, sign the card, and return it—if they wish to guarantee continued uninterrupted receipt of their pensions after February 1.

At the same time he noted that possibly several Gold Star parents in the county will soon cease receiving payments because they failed to return questionnaires sent them last September. In the case of those entitled to "Gold Star" benefits the payments will resume after the questionnaires are properly filled out and returned.

To avoid any stoppage of pension checks Bollman urged those receiving the questionnaires next week to return them immediately and properly filled out. Those who may need assistance are urged to visit any veterans organization or his office on the second floor of the Topper Building on Baltimore St., next to the courthouse. Those not returning their questionnaires will be taken from the rolls February 1.

ERRORS LISTED

Bollman said the Veterans Administration has listed the most common errors made by those who receive the questionnaires and added the errors cause confusion and delays. The errors include:

- "Many mutilate, trim or fold the card, making it impossible to process."
- "Many fail to sign it."
- "Many delay beyond the deadline date of January 31."
- "Many neglect to fill all pertinent blanks. 'None' might be written in where the question does not apply."
- "Income information should be provided for both 1963 and 1964."
- "Pensioner should use the card received."
- "Other topics should not be combined with this report but should be the subject of separate correspondence."
- "Custodians or guardians answering questions for a child should be sure to supply information applying to that child and not to other members of the family."

God keep my conscience crystal clear . . . throughout each day and night . . . guide me on this weary way . . . keep me to the right . . . let my days be spent in toil . . . my nights in peaceful rest . . . so that I can face tomorrow . . . equal to the test . . . if You choose to make me fail . . . in the things I try . . . fill my heart with purest hope . . . to keep my spirits high . . . I ask You not for health or gold . . . Your will is my command . . . but I implore You for the faith . . . to smile and understand . . . dear Father, hear my humble prayer . . . when this life is through . . . let my soul be comforted . . . eternally with You.

Mitchell's Reopens Wednesday Morning: Mitchell's Restaurant on Lincoln Square will resume 24-hour operation on Wednesday, Cloyd Shetter, proprietor, announced today following the installation of additional dining room fixtures and a modernization of kitchen facilities. Closed two weeks for renovation, Mitchell's since has installed new flooring and counter tops in the dining room, while completely redecorating the kitchen. According to Shetter, the remodeling program was the first in the restaurant's 31-year history.

During the last 14 days, workmen also placed new flooring in the kitchen in addition to providing a rust-proof iron sink, dishwasher, and grill. Kitchen lighting has been transformed to the instant fluorescent, tubular type. Future plans call for the removal of dining room booths and the addition of tables.

Mr. Shetter, who formerly worked there 11 years as chef, plans no personnel changes. Caroline Hilty will remain in charge of the day force and William Dillman, a veteran of 25 years at the Lincoln Square establishment, continues to supervise the night crew.

Today's TalkTHE RUTHLESSNESS OF EXPERIENCE

A few of our experiences we are enabled to select — but most of them come upon us unaware, and unannounced. It is just as well, for it behooves us to so condition our minds and our characters as to be able to meet any experience — be it good or tragic.

Much of the experience that we are called upon to face is ruthless. And it is no respecter of persons. It is the common lot of all. In this connection one of the most valuable assets to acquire is that of fearlessness. To be able to face any emergency, with a brave heart, and a determined will is half the battle for any victory over an unhappy or tragic event.

The experiences that we go through form a covering to most of the habits that we form — many of them fortifying us in times of distress, discouragement, or grave peril. Their very ruthlessness steels us and urging us on to conquer, making us masters of ourselves, and of events!

The story of our lives is one of experiences. They make up the very weaving of its completed fabric. Men and women carry experience in their faces, in their walk and in the way they talk. A calm eye often displays the evidence of wide experience — and often the manner of a person betrays the ruthlessness of that experience though great bravery and control have softened it all.

The war veteran always carries about with him the mantle of what he has been and what he has gone through. The lines in his face tell a man's story far more dramatically, and with greater vividness than any written word could ever express. That one, who has known the terror and the loneliness of ruthless experience, is all the more schooled to appreciate and understand the gentler, and happier experiences that melt into the harsher ones.

Experiences cannot be copied from another. They must be learned — no matter how cruel or exacting — no matter how much they may try and test the soul. It's a part of the serious game of life itself.

It is easy to say that it isn't so,
You can brush it aside with sneers,
But life isn't altered by "yes" or "no."
Or changed by our smiles or tears.
For the stars will stay and the sun will rise
Despite all the words of the critic wise.And whether we think it or whether we don't,
The law of the Lord will rule.
We shall answer His call though we will or won't.
The fire in our veins shall cool,
And we shall pass out of this life and go,
Just as we came to the earth below.The trees will flourish, the sun will shine,
The rivers their courses will run,
Youth will march out to life's battle line
When we with the fight are done,
And they in their time will make for their own
Discoveries of truth which we've never known.
We haven't seen all that shall be on earth,
In spite of our "yes" or "no,"
Marvels of splendor shall come to birth
As onward the race shall go,
And somewhere and somehow it seems that we Must continue to follow our destiny.Protected, 1963, by The George throughout the years. In 1952 the month broke the summer and fall drought with a full six inches of rainfall.

But what happened in November, 1953? The drought continued on through its fourth month.

Traditionally wet November could produce only 1.13 inches of precipitation, and it had to have four inches of snow to get the amount up to that figure. Four inches of snow produced .40 inch of water for the parched earth.

PENS BOOK ON GETTYSBURG

Dr. Edwin B. Coddington, professor and chairman of the department of history, has resumed teaching duties at Lafayette College, Easton, after a two-year leave which he spent working on a book about the battle of Gettysburg.

Entitled "The Gettysburg Campaign: A Study in Command," the book is a detailed analysis of the battle beginning at the end of the Battle of Chancellorsville with specific attention to grand strategy and tactics.

Dr. Coddington began his extensive research for the book in 1961 when he was awarded a sabbatical leave by Lafayette for the 1961-62 year. He visited libraries and archives throughout the east and collected most of his research from original source materials. In 1962-63 he was given a year's leave of absence by the college to continue work on the book.

One of his major problems was brought about by the faulty memory of men on the scene, Dr. Coddington said.

"I depended a great deal on an analysis of news and military dispatches, journals, diaries and personal letters rather than battle reports and memoirs," he explained.

Dr. Coddington is the first scholar to study the papers of Col. John Bachelder, a lithographer who visited Gettysburg im-

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Dallas appeared today to be trying, almost frantically to get back to normal eight days after an assassin here had shot to death President John F. Kennedy.

Downtown department stores and neighborhood shopping centers were jammed. Traffic was bumper to bumper in downtown business sections and freeway traffic was heavy and fast.

President Kennedy, after a triumphant motorcade through the city, was killed by two rifle shots fired by a sniper on the sixth floor of a building at the edge of the business district.

Gov. John B. Connally was hit by one bullet from the sniper's gun last Friday and was critically injured. He is recovering in Parkland Hospital here.

STACKS OF FLOWERS

Where crowds were silent and reverent for the first few days after the tragedy opinions were being expressed more frequently little more than a week after the shooting.

Obviously, however, most Dallas residents were saddened by the chain of events that saw the President killed and his accused assassin shot to death by a strip-tease joint operator about 48 hours later.

Kennedy was shot where Elm Street plunged downward on the western outskirts of the downtown section toward a three-story underpass. Green grass covered the banks of the street on north and south the day of the tragedy.

YOUNG DRIVER KILLEDPLEASANT VALLEY, N. Y. (AP) — One hour after he picked up his junior operator's license, Peter C. Mosier, 16, of Wassau, N.Y., was killed in a three-car collision while driving home Friday.

He hopes to have the first draft of his book completed in the near future. Publication is at least a year in the future, he reported.

the tragedy. Today only floral offerings to the late president's memory can be seen. Flowers are stacked high on each bank of the street, and each day the stack of wreaths grows.

Motorists drive slowly by the site. Many take photographs of the banked flowers. Many say a silent prayer. Some stare ahead as if the flowers were not there. And frequently a wreath is thrown from a car to add to the floral profusion.

In Dallas County Jail one of the principals of the tragedy was held. He is Jack Ruby, 32, the nightclub operator who gunned down Lee Harvey Oswald, 24, the President's accused killer. Oswald was killed as police attempted to transfer him for city jail to the county prison, a block from where the President was assassinated.

Sheriff Bill Decker said Ruby appears to be in good spirits.

"He realizes he is in a jam," said the veteran officer, "but I would say his morale is good. He appears to have made a good adjustment to jail life. He has been eating his meals and apparently sleeping well."

WARREN HEADS PROBE GROUP

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has named a top-level panel to investigate the assassination of President John F. Kennedy so that the nation, the world and history will know the facts.

That was Johnson's mandate to the special presidential commission named Friday night. He chose Chief Justice Earl Warren to head it.

In addition to Warren, Johnson named these six to the commission: Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga.; Sen. John Sherman Cooper, R-Ky.; Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La.; Rep. Gerald R. Ford, R-Mich.; former Central Intelligence Agency Director Allen W. Dulles, and onetime disarmament negotiator John J. McCloy.

The President signed an executive order authorizing the commission to subpoena witnesses and granting it other powers it might need to investigate.

Johnson talked with each member of the commission before announcing its creation. He set no time limit on its inquiry, and White House sources said Warren will decide when the commission will go to work.

NITZE IS NEW CHIEF OF NAVY

By ELTON C. FAY
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy has welcomed aboard Paul H. Nitze as its new civilian chief, with belief—or hope—that he knows and understands sea power.

Nitze, sworn in Friday as secretary of the Navy, has no naval background. Moreover, he is a disciple of Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, some of whose decisions ride strongly against the tide of Navy aspirations.

But Nitze has developed a familiarity with strategy and its implementation by military forces during almost three years as assistant secretary of defense for national security affairs—foreign military aid—and before that in other government and advisory capacities.

Adm. Claude V. Ricketts, vice chief of naval operations, is one of the professionals who believes Nitze will be good for the Navy.

Ricketts, who has seen several changes in the Navy's leadership, measures Nitze this way: "I have talked with Mr. Nitze frequently on naval subjects and maritime power. Of all civilians, I have found that none understands and appreciates the potentials of sea power as much as Mr. Nitze."

STATE IS DUE FOR MORE SNOW

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Western Pennsylvania, just now recovering from its first bad snow storm of the season, is in store for more snow flurries and cold temperatures this weekend.

The northwestern part of the state has been alerted for heavier snow squalls today, tonight and Sunday. About two to four inches of new snow is predicted. Friday's blustering storm left as much as six inches of snow in some parts of the district. It was considered a contributing factor in the increase of highway deaths this Thanksgiving holiday period.

State police throughout the area had their hands full with fender-bender accidents.

Cambria County recorded six inches of snow in the higher portions. Other representative snow falls were:
Pittsburgh 3, Blairsville 4, Altoona 2, Greensburg 2 and Meadville 2.

Cinder crews came out in full force and all highways were opened. But driving was still treacherous during the night especially on the hilly roadways.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

DON TRULL IS DRAFTED BY 2 IN TWO LOOPS

NEW YORK (AP)—The Denver Broncos held the No. 1 draft choice today as the American Football League selected the top 200 prospects of the college crop in 25 rounds.

Several of the top collegians had been picked last year as "futures" because their original college class graduated last June. One of the prizes in that category was Don Trull, the Baylor quarterback, who was drafted by Houston in the AFL and Baltimore in the National Football League.

EYE BIG LINEMEN
Denver was interested primarily in offensive linemen, quarterbacks and flankers backs. With that in mind they had examined carefully the credentials of men like Bob Brown, 269-pound Nebraska guard; Carl Eller, 241-pound Minnesota tackle; Scott Appleton, fiery Texas tackle; and Dick Evey, a 240-pound tackle from Tennessee.

Each of the eight teams in the AFL retains its first-round pick but some have traded away their lower-round selections. San Diego, Kansas City and Buffalo each has 27, Houston and Oakland 25, New York 24, Boston 23 and Denver 22.

The order of selection was to be Denver, Kansas City, New York, Boston, Buffalo, Houston, Oakland and San Diego. Boston and Buffalo, tied in the combined standings will alternate position every other round.

Miami, Alabama Will Play Dec. 14

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Miami's televised football game with Alabama will be played in the Orange Bowl Dec. 14 instead of Dec. 7.

The date change was made in consequence of rescheduling the Army-Navy game, also a CBS TV feature, to Dec. 7.

Television coverage had been offered on the Miami-Alabama day-time encounter.

The Army-Navy game had been postponed from Nov. 30 because of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Lemon To Pilot York In East Loop

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators Friday night announced the appointment of former major leaguer Jim Lemon as manager of their York, Pa., farm team in the Class AA Eastern League.

Lemon, 35, began his playing career in 1948 and moved into the majors in 1951 with Cleveland as an outfielder. He was purchased by Washington in 1954 and moved to Minneapolis in 1961 when the franchise was shifted.

Last May, Lemon was sold to the Philadelphia Phillies. Later in the season he was released and picked up by the Chicago White Sox. The White Sox subsequently released him.

Lemon had his best seasons with the old Washington Senators in 1959 and 1960 when he drove in more than 100 runs each year and hit 33 and 38 homers respectively.

Power Failure At Half Stops Game; Resume Today

A power failure at half time halted the Bermudian Springs-Northern basketball game Friday evening on the Bermudian floor and arrangements were made to play the second half of the game this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Coach Glenn Gruver's Bermudian outfit led at the end of the first half 32-26. The lights went out as the squads were warming up preparatory to starting the second half.

Power failed generally in that area and was not restored until 11 o'clock.

Northern's junior varsity won the preliminary game.

STATE IS IDLE PITT AT MIAMI

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Idle Penn State scheduled a one-hour scrimmage today while its next football opponent, Pitt, was battling Miami.

State's quarterback, Pete Liske, was not expected to take part in the scrimmage because of a sprained ankle. He will be ready for action against Pitt Dec. 7, however.

Head Coach Rip Engle said the scrimmage will make up somewhat for the layoff after the Pitt-Penn State game was postponed last weekend because of the death of President Kennedy.

The Lions worked out briefly in the rain Friday, concentrating on passing, punting and place kicking.

Montgomery Seeks 36 Negro Police

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—The Montgomery police department will accept applications immediately for a Negro police reserve.

Police Chief W. M. Stanley said Friday that the unit would be composed of 36 Negroes "trained in police fundamentals in order that they might be prepared for active duty assignments in the event that circumstances should require."

There are no Negroes on the police force.

FORMER EUB LEADER DIES

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Rev. Dr. Schuyler C. Enck, 95, former superintendent of the East Pennsylvania Evangelical United Brethren Church Conference, died Friday.

Dr. Enck once held pastorates at Manheim and Columbia in Lancaster County while at Columbia, he was elected conference superintendent, a position he occupied for 25 years until his retirement in 1947.

Dr. Enck served the EUB denomination as a member of the Board of Directors of the United Union Seminary, Dayton, Ohio and as a member of the Board of Trustees of Lebanon Valley College.

A native of Hopland, Dr. Enck graduated from Lebanon Valley in 1897 and continued his theological education at the United Union Seminary. He received his doctor of divinity degree from Lebanon Valley in 1910.

Survivors include two sons and a daughter.

Funeral services will be held here Monday with burial in Hopland.

BROWNS FACE CARDINALS IN CRUCIAL GAME

By TOM PENDERGAST
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Vengeful Cleveland brings Jimmy Brown and company to St. Louis Sunday for a National Football League game with the surprising Cardinals which could help decide the Eastern Division championship.

The Browns, defeated 20-14 by St. Louis at Cleveland two weeks ago, are in a three-way tie with the Cards and New York for first place. Each has an 8-3 record.

For the Cardinals, it's their third straight clutch game. After knocking off the Browns, St. Louis moved to New York and topped the Giants 24-17, throwing the Eastern race into a triple tie.

The losers could be out of the running for the Eastern championship, but there's a possibility that a slip by any of the top three teams could cause a four-way race. The Pittsburgh Steelers, 6-3-2, meet the cellar-dwelling Philadelphia Eagles at Pittsburgh, while the Giants journey to Dallas' Cotton Bowl and a battle with the Cowboys, 3-8-0.

OTHER BATTLES
In other NFL games, Baltimore, 5-6; plays at Washington, 3-8, Los Angeles, 4-7, goes to San Francisco 2-9, and Chicago 9-1-1, the Western Division leader, hosts Minnesota, 4-7. Green Bay, 9-2-1, missed a chance to gain a game on Chicago Thursday, managing only a 13-13 tie with Detroit, 4-7-1.

After this weekend, each team will have only two games remaining. Browns and Cardinals both must play Dallas, and St. Louis has a home game with the Eagles. The Giants meet Washington and Pittsburgh in their final two games and Cleveland plays Detroit and Washington.

40,000 MORE VISIT GRAVE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some 40,000 persons moved in a long line under dark skies Friday to view John F. Kennedy's grave—and the fulfillment of a prophetic wish.

Jack Metzler, director of Arlington National Cemetery, said the line had formed before the gates swung open. And though it was a cloudy wet day, the line remained almost until dusk when a harsh, raw wind swept in.

Just a few months ago the late president stood near the spot where he is now buried. Paul Fugua, 23, a guide at the Custis-Lee mansion which sits on high ground surrounded by the sprawling cemetery, recalled Kennedy's unexpected visit last March 3.

"It was a really beautiful day, just one of those days," Fugua said. "We were walking around, and I told the President: 'If I lived in the White House, I'd move the White House out here, the view is so beautiful.'"

"STAY HERE FOREVER"
"The President said yes and added: 'I could stay up here forever.'"

A White House source said Friday that Jacqueline Kennedy, learning of the former president's statement, approved the spot for his grave site.

At present the only marker is the eternal flame lighted by Mrs. Kennedy during the graveside rites Monday a mound of flowers and a neat, white picket fence.

But John Carl Warnecke, a Washington architect, confirmed Friday that Mrs. Kennedy had discussed with him some possible designs for a tomb. He wouldn't comment on them.

Convict Doctors On Dope Charges
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A U.S. District Court jury convicted two North Philadelphia physicians Friday of charges of unlawful sale of narcotics.

It was the third trial on the same charges for Dr. Eric R. Clarke, 48, and Dr. Horace R. Johnson, 58.

Chief Judge Thomas J. Clary refused to release the physicians on bail pending argument by defense counsel for another new trial.

Sentencing was deferred.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Dr. William Embury Wraether, 80, chief of the U.S. Geological Survey from 1943-56 died Thursday night of a stroke.

HARVEY, III (AP)—Arthur C. Wilby, 78, vice president of United States Steel Corp. from 1946 until his retirement in 1953, died Friday night in a hospital.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Clifford Y. Stevens, 61, who gave his chain of dairy stores in Washington, D.C., Maryland and Virginia to the Iowa State University Foundation last year, was killed Friday in an auto accident. The High Dairy Products Corp. operated 141 stores in the three areas.

CANADA TO SEE SPORTS BREW

NEW YORK (AP)—The Japanese are shouting "Ole" for a back flip over the goal line today—and you can join them in this confusion.

It's all television's fault. The video boys hooked up a Thanksgiving sports show and sent it to Japan.

They mixed up a little European soccer, gymnastics, track and auto racing, threw in films of the U.S.-Russia track meet last summer, plus interviews with a Belgian, a Frenchman and an Italian, added an American football game, a rodeo and some figure skating, blended a Canadian hockey game and a bullfight from Mexico—and shipped the whole mess off to Tokyo via the relay satellite.

ABC, which concocted this weird sports brew billed as the first TV linkage of three continents, is going to show the resultant confusion to Americans today.

SHOW AT GAME
The film of the show, which runs 13 minutes and 40 seconds, will be shown between halves of the Grey Cup football game for the Canadian pro football championship today.

Fog descended on the Grey Cup game last year and caused a 24-hour interruption in the middle of the fourth quarter.

Fog might seem crystal clear compared to the diversion planned today.

It's timed for 4-7 p.m. EST.

U.S. HOLIDAY TOLL NOW 264

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic fatalities continued to mount slowly Saturday as the four-day Thanksgiving weekend passed the halfway point. The death toll was about that of a comparable nonholiday period.

A day off Friday for many people was reflected in the relatively low number of traffic fatalities. The National Safety Council declined to make a pre-holiday estimate of traffic deaths. A council spokesman said fewer persons travel during the Thanksgiving weekend.

With the four-day weekend past its halfway point, 264 persons had died in traffic accidents.

The death count began at 6 p.m. Wednesday and will end at midnight Sunday.

514 DIE IN '62
In 1962 a Thanksgiving fatality record was established when 514 persons perished. The lowest toll was 442 in 1960 for a comparable period.

Good driving conditions plus the stay-at-home day Friday have been credited with safety officials for the near-average death toll. For the first nine months this year an average of 100 persons have died daily on the nation's highways and streets.

The Associated Press surveyed a comparable nonholiday period from 6 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13, to midnight Sunday, Nov. 17, and counted 477 traffic deaths. The survey was made to arrive at a figure for comparison with this weekend's toll.

COLLEGE CAGE SEASON OPENS THIS EVENING

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
College basketball edges into the sports picture tonight with, as usual, numerous intersectional games taking the spotlight on the official opening of the season.

George Washington at Cincinnati, Penn State at Duke, Wyoming at Wichita, Virginia at Kentucky, Minnesota at Kansas State, Tulane at Toledo and Oregon State at Washington State top the list.

Results of these clashes are expected to provide a clue to such questions as: Can Wichita beat out Cincinnati in the tough Missouri Valley Conference? Is Duke, the champion of the Atlantic Coast Conference, as good as rated? Is Kentucky really as bad as its Coach Adolph Rupp fears? Is Toledo a real dark horse? Can Kansas State beat out Oklahoma State in the Big Eight? Will Oregon State again be the top independent on the Pacific Coast?

LOYOLA, NYU TOPS
The main question is, of course, can any of them beat out Loyola of Chicago and New York University, rated one-two in the pre-season Associated Press poll?

The Loyola Ramblers, who upset Cincinnati for the national championship last March, and the Violets do not open until next week, the sea as the sixth-ranked Arizona State Sun Devils.

Cincinnati was third in the pre-season poll. Duke fourth and Wichita fifth. After Arizona State came Ohio State, Michigan, Kentucky and Oregon State with UCLA, Kansas State, North Carolina and San Francisco close behind.

Ohio State begins things today with an afternoon game at home against U. California of Davis.

Baltimore Wins NCAA Soccer Title

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—The University of Baltimore, for the second time in the three-year-history of the tournament, has won the NCAA Atlantic Coast regional soccer championship.

Baltimore gained a 2-1 victory Friday over Elizabethtown Pa. College, with a goal by George Barger from five yards out with 1:48 remaining in the game.

Baltimore also won the championship in 1961.

Tommy Thompson put Baltimore ahead in the first period with a goal, but Al Hershey tied the game for Elizabethtown in the second period.

Huskies Are Favored To Beat State To Win Spot In Rose Bowl Tilt

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
A couple of doddering granddaddies—one the bowl and one The Game—take the spotlight today in the somber windup of collegiate football's regular season play.

The host spot in the Rose Bowl, granddaddy of all the post-season extravaganzas, will be settled in a couple of Big Six family squabbles at Los Angeles and Seattle, with Washington's Huskies favored to take it all.

And in New Haven, Conn., The Game will match Harvard and Yale for the 80th time in the most storied of all the traditional games.

POSTPONED GAMES

Those three games, along with a majority of the games scheduled, were postponed from last weekend because of the death of President Kennedy.

Most games scheduled memorial services and patriotic music at halftime instead of the usual colorful shows.

Illinois gained the visitor's spot in the Rose Bowl when it captured the Big Ten title with a 13-0 decision over Michigan State Thanksgiving Day. The Illini's opponent will be determined in the cross-town feud between Southern California and UCLA and the Washington-Washington State game.

MUST BEAT STATE

Washington, at 5-4 overall and 3-1 in the league, can take it all by beating Washington State. Should the Cougars upset the Huskies, however, the winner of the Southern Cal-UCLA game probably will get the nod. UCLA has only a 2-7 overall mark, but both victories were in Big Six play, including an upset of Washington. Both the Trojans and the Bruins have 2-1 league records.

The West Coast representative will decide in a poll of league officials immediately after the two games.

OTHER BOWL LURES

Spots in the Cotton, Sugar and Orange Bowls also could be affected by the Saturday schedule, although Navy has postponed until next week its classic clash with Army. The second-ranked Middles are prime bowl contenders, but won't be in the market if they don't win their fifth straight from the Cadets.

Alabama and Auburn, each with a 7-1 record and ranked sixth and ninth respectively, both are bowl contenders regardless of the outcome of their clash in Birmingham. Auburn is a top choice for the Orange to oppose Nebraska, while Alabama appears headed for the Sugar Bowl, possibly to oppose Mississippi.

Farm Show Will Set Record In Premium Awards, Entries

By THOMAS E. PIPER
Adams County Farm Agent

Biggest agricultural event in the state and certain to be one of the largest of its kind in the whole world, the 46th Pennsylvania State Farm Show, January 13-17, 1964 has set a new record months in advance of its opening.

Horace L. Mann, Farm Show director, said premium money will total $63,464, a new high. It was $735 when the show first opened in 1917 and has gone up to $63,289.50 for last January's event.

Thomas E. Piper

Attendance also has been climbing, and those in charge will have an eye on the crowds that jam the huge hall, a rambling structure extending over more than 13 acres, all under continuous roof. Last January's count was 690,000 highest in show history.

A magnet that draws men and women of all ages, the show is visited each year by folks from the city in nearly as large numbers as those from the farm. They come mostly from Pennsylvania, but represent also a dozen other states—even foreign countries.

STATE-WIDE ENTRIES

All entries are from Pennsylvania, except for the commercial displays and some specialized poultry classes. Competitive exhibits will feature top quality agricultural and home economics products from the state's farms and farm homes.

Exhibits will include draft horses, dairy and beef cattle, swine, sheep, poultry of all kinds.

Emmitsburg

MRS. RALPH LONG
HI 7-2231

EMMITTSBURG — The Misses Nancy Eyster and Susan Espy, students at the University of Maryland, spent the weekend with Miss Eyster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Eyster.

Mrs. Mary Sherwin, president, conducted the meeting of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin of St. Joseph's Church on Monday evening in St. Euphemia's Hall. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Father Stauble, spiritual director. The society will hold the annual Christmas party on Tuesday evening, December 17, at 6:30 p.m. in the Green Parrot Tea Shop. Consultants of the bands will contact members about tickets. The full price of the menu is $1.50, but it was decided by the group to sell tickets to members for $1.00 and pay the balance out of the treasury. Each member will bring a gift of $1.00 value to be exchanged. The father-son Columbus was discussed, but due to the small attendance, final decision was delayed until the next meeting. Officers will be elected at the next meeting. Reception of new members will be held in the Church. Mrs. Eunice Neighbors' name was called for the door prize, but she was not present. Father Stauble closed the meeting with a prayer and asked the members to recite a Rosary for the late President.

A card party sponsored by the mothers of the Cub Scouts was held Tuesday evening in the VFW annex. Winners of prizes were as follows: Record holder, Mrs. Dora Wormley; ice cream, Nora Ligorano; stuffed dog, Marie Long; cakes, Mrs. Carl Haines, Mrs. Doris Stouter and Mrs. Virginia Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers Topper, Mt. Airy, visited Sunday with Mr. Topper's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Topper.

Mrs. Gloria Martin was elected secretary at the recent reunion of the Joy family.

Requiem Masses were offered at St. Joseph's Church on Saturday and Monday at noon for the late President John F. Kennedy.

The Junior Class of St. Joseph's High School sponsored a Thanksgiving dance on Wednesday evening in the school auditorium.

The Catholic census taken recently in St. Joseph's parish showed a total of 998 members.

A profit of over $2,000 was reported from the recent bazaar held at the Mother Seton School. The December PTA meeting will be held on the afternoon of December 15, when the children will present their Christmas program.

including turkeys; eggs, wool, corn, small grains, potatoes, hay, grass silage, tobacco, apples, vegetables, edible nuts, sugar maple items, apiary products, Christmas trees, and mostly foods and clothing in home economics.

Nearly 40 farm groups have scheduled educational and business meetings at the show building or in downtown Harrisburg as part of the week's program.

Although doors open Monday morning, formal opening waits until Monday night when Governor William W. Scranton is scheduled to make an opening address of welcome. A Pennsylvania State Police rodeo the same night and other evening programs that follow will provide entertainment to balance daytime business and educational features.

The theme for the 1964 show is "Forward with Agribusiness, Pennsylvania's Major Industry." Educational values of the Farm Show will be emphasized.

HUNTING ACCIDENTS

Pennsylvania's record is good as a hunting state where emphasis is placed on the recreational aspects of our wildlife resource.

With a million men engaged in any outdoor activity, there are bound to be some unavoidable accidents. However, records show that guns placed in dangerous positions are one of the important causes of accidents related to carelessness.

Never lean a loaded gun against the car or on a fence. A good safety habit is to unload the gun when stopping for a smoke or to eat lunch.

Failure to see a victim in line of fire ranks high in causing hunting accidents. Hunters are cautioned to know where their companions are located in the field. Make it a practice to keep abreast of the group, and if necessary, call back and forth in heavy cover.

The pleasures of a day afield can be lasting ones, so take every precaution to avoid adding another number to the list of hunting casualties.

BATTERY CARE

Cold weather is hard on batteries in service or in storage. These suggestions will help prolong battery life:

Keep the battery top clean. Scrape or brush off the deposits on the terminals, wash off with a strong solution of baking soda and flush with clear water. Those deposits encourage current leaks. Generously coat the terminals with petroleum jelly or light grease.

Make sure the battery is tight in its holding cradle because bouncing around injures cells. When starting an engine hit the starter in brief contacts. Grinding away does little good. If your vehicle has a straight shift, depress clutch while starting.

Batteries on equipment stored for the winter should be removed to locations safe from extreme cold, and occasionally brought up to full charge.

EX-PRESIDENT OF UNIVERSITY DIES THURSDAY

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Funeral services will be held Monday in the First Presbyterian Church for the Rev. William Hallock Johnson, president emeritus of Lincoln University at nearby Oxford.

Mr. Johnson, who would have been 98 next Tuesday, died Thursday at the home of his son, Hallock. He was graduated from Princeton University in 1888 and was believed to be the oldest living alumnus of the school.

A native of New York, Mr. Johnson received his doctor of philosophy degree in 1893 from Columbia University. He was graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1896.

WAS TRUSTEE

At the time of his death, Mr. Johnson was a trustee of the seminary and of Lincoln University. He taught at Lincoln from 1903 to 1926 when he became president of the school.

After his retirement as president in 1936, he lived in Princeton until 1957 and then in the Synnere Home in Cooperstown, N.Y.

He was a member of the Donaghy Presbyterian of Pennsylvania.

Survivors include another son, the Rev. Dr. R. Park Johnson, of Tehran, Iran, and two brothers, Walter Lathrop and Rosell, both of Ossining, N.Y.

There will be a graveside service in Princeton Cemetery.

Many Memorials Being Planned For Kennedy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The death of President Kennedy has inspired a surge of memorials in his name. They range from a street in Paris to the giant missile base at Cape Canaveral, now Cape Kennedy, Fla.

The Beckley (W. Va.) Post-Herald proposed Friday that West Virginia be renamed "Kennedy, or perhaps Kennediana," saying he called it the state he held "most dear, after his own state."

President Johnson Thursday night changed Cape Canaveral's name, which dates back at least 365 years, to Cape Kennedy. He had asked the Post Office Department earlier to issue a stamp in Kennedy's honor.

STREET IN PARIS

The Paris city council named a committee to pick a street that will be named Avenue or Rue John Fitzgerald Kennedy.

In Lincoln, Neb., LaVerne Holscher has asked the 19 property owners on the two-block street where he lives to agree to change the name to "Kennedy Drive."

Sen. Alan Bible, D-Nev., proposed that 50 million silver dollars expected to be minted next year bear the image of Kennedy.

AMBASSADOR FROM AUSTRIA PLANS SKI LIFT

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAIDU SHARIF, Pakistan (AP) — An Austrian ambassador who longed for the ski slopes of the Alps has started plans for the first ski resort in the area of the world's highest mountains.

If the plans work out, the hum of ski lifts and the swish of waxed boards on deep snow may be heard near Saidu Sharif by this time next year. Two years from now is a more likely opening time for the hotel and other facilities under discussion.

They will be at Malam Jaba, an area between 6,000 and 8,500 feet high in the foothills of the Hindu Kush, a westward extension of the Himalayas.

PICKED BEST PLACE

Dr. F. A. Kolb, when he was ambassador to Pakistan, spent a lot of time climbing around looking for spots. Kolb decided the best place was a few miles from Saidu Sharif, the capital of Swat, an autonomous state in Pakistan.

A year ago, before his transfer back to the foreign ministry in Vienna, Kolb finished a paper on the subject. With Austrian government backing, he discussed it with Pakistan's President Mohammad Ayub Khan.

The president liked the idea of skiing for this Moslem nation of some 100 million persons—few of whom ever have seen skis.

A golf course and tennis courts will be added for a year-round resort. When the summer temperatures rises to 110 on the plains of West Pakistan, mountain resorts are crowded.

ers, Walter Lathrop and Rosell, both of Ossining, N.Y.

There will be a graveside service in Princeton Cemetery.

Schools in Butte, Mont., and Bethpage, N.Y., have been named for Kennedy and dozens of other school districts are considering such suggestions.

Proposed memorials also include dozens of parks, squares and highways, an airport, a cultural and civic centers, dams and scholarships.

In Dallas, where Kennedy was assassinated, the city's park board is considering several proposals to establish memorials in Kennedy's name.

Letter To The Editor

25 November 1963

The Editor
Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

To illustrate the deep sympathy that people of other lands felt for us at the death of our President, I would like to quote to you a letter which we received today from German friends in the city of Goslar. This was not an expression of "official" grief, but the heart-felt opinion of human beings against whom just two decades ago we were engaged in a world war.

TRANSLATION

Goslar
23 November 1963

Dear Family Weaver:

We are still under the effect of the terrible news about the attack against John F. Kennedy, the President of your country. It had the same effect as if it were an attempt against the life of our own national leader. Our thoughts and hearts are with his family, with all Americans, and especially with you. In deep shock, we bow before you and feel ourselves closely joined with you.

Your,
Christian Mueller
Marlies Mueller
Peter Mueller

The Muellers, father, mother and 18-year-old son, have been friends of ours since 1960 when we met them in Italy. Their sympathy is typical of that expressed by all Germans. What a reservoir of good will really, fundamentally, exists between our people.

Trial Of Accused Assassin Is Urged

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—A newspaper proposed today that the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy be given a regular trial — even though he is dead — to bring out all facts in the case.

The afternoon Palo Alto Times noted in an editorial that Lee Harvey Oswald, accused of shooting Kennedy, must be presumed innocent until proved guilty.

Press aide Andrew Hatcher, who reported the totals to newspapers, said most of the letters and wires were for Mrs. Kennedy, but some were addressed to President and Mrs. Johnson.

(AP) — An 85-foot yacht with five persons aboard apparently sank in stormy seas off the Georgia coast. One person was rescued by a Navy minesweeper and he told the Coast Guard the other four went down with the boat. A nightlong search was conducted about 90 miles east of Savannah in high winds. The identity of the survivor from the yacht, Judy, was not known immediately. Sources in Norfolk, Va., where the yacht left Nov. 24 for Miami, identified three of those aboard as Cmdr. and Mrs. Amador Coberg of Lakewood, Calif., and Bob Stanton, Marine mechanic from California. There was no word on the identity of the other two. Storm Won't Stop Ship Christening BATH, Maine (AP) — A storm packing gale-force winds forced a few changes in the scheduled launching today of the guided missile frigate Josephus Daniels. The colorful prelaunching ceremonies and christening for the 7,900-ton vessel were to go on as planned. But the 547-foot vessel won't go down the ways until Sunday, said officials at the Bath Iron Works where the frigate was built. Gale warnings were up along the Maine coast today.

COUNCIL WILL RESUME MEETS IN SEPTEMBER

By BENNET M. BOLTON
Associated Press Staff Writer
VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Vatican Ecumenical Council will hold its third session next fall to continue its work of modernizing the Roman Catholic Church and seeking Christian unity, officials announced Friday.

At the same time, drafting commissions to work on the council documents during the interim were enlarged, giving progressive prelates a greater voice.

RECESSED WEDNESDAY

It appeared certain the council will recess next Wednesday without acting on two documents on the Jews and religious tolerance despite an eloquent plea for a vote now by Bishop Charles Helmsing of Kansas City-St. Joseph, Mo.

Council officials announced the approximate dates for the next session—Sept. 14 to Nov. 20 next year—and disclosed the names of 43 bishops elected to seats on the 12 commissions.

Pope Paul VI ordered the size of the 12 commissions expanded to 30 members each so that they might more efficiently work during the recess period. The commissions will revise council documents and incorporate amendments suggested during council debate the past two months.

ONE ITALIAN PRELATE

Of the 43 prelates elected to the new commission seats, only one came from the generally conservative Italian hierarchy. The Italians, with almost 300 bishops, have the biggest episcopate in the world.

The U.S. episcopate, second in the world with about 180 bishops, was given the largest number of seats on the new commissions—six.

The 2,200 council fathers, in their meeting today in St. Peter's Basilica, continued debating a Christian unity document. It was their next-to-last working session before the recess. The last will be on Monday. The Tuesday and Wednesday sessions are ceremonial.

The Roman Catholic assembly convened Oct. 11, 1962. That session ended Dec. 8, 1962. The second session opened Sept. 29.

URGES VOTE

Bishop Helmsing urged the council to vote on whether to accept the documents on the Jews and on religious tolerance as a basis for further discussion. One document says every man is free to follow his conscience on religion; the other that not just Jews but all men share responsibility for Christ's crucifixion.

The American prelate was applauded but the presiding officers took no action on his suggestion, a council spokesman said.

Bishop Helmsing was paraphrased by council spokesmen as saying: "Everyone has been awaiting this vote before the end of the current session. There is no reason why it can't be taken today."

He also said Protestant churches should not be described in the unity schema as "communities." He said he pre-

Neighbor's Help Patrolman's Widow

TRUCKEE, Calif. (AP)—California highway patrolman Glenn W. Carlson hadn't gotten very far in building his Sierra mountain home when he was shot to death Nov. 15 by fleeing bank robbers.

Thanksgiving Day, the widow of the 33-year-old officer stood in the bare living room of the nearly completed home and said, "You just don't realize how wonderful people can be until something like this happens."

Jane Carlson and her three children—age 7, 6 and 4—have been staying in a rented house while neighbors, friends and strangers pitched in with money, materials and labor to help finish the home.

MOYERS MAY BE NEW TOP AID TO PRESIDENT

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—A new team of presidential advisers is sure to shape up in the White House soon, bearing the stamp of Lyndon B. Johnson and Texas.

President Johnson likely will want to keep some of the men who surrounded John F. Kennedy in his two years and 10 months in the White House.

But he won't want to keep all, nor will all want to stay.

The job of presidential aide or adviser usually demands fierce loyalty and at times personal closeness. Presidents want long-time associates and familiar faces around them. Johnson is no exception.

MOYERS PROBABLE

One likely prospect is Bill Moyers, 29, deputy director of the Peace Corps. The slender Texan has been at Johnson's side since the new President succeeded Kennedy.

Some observers predict he will wind up as the new President's No. 1 aide, a job like that of Kennedy's special counsel, Theodore C. Sorensen.

An ordained Baptist minister, Moyers was a newsman for Mrs. Johnson's radio and television stations, a key member of Johnson's staff when the President was Senate majority leader, and a manager of Johnson's unsuccessful drive for the presidential nomination in 1960.

O'DONNELL CLEARS DESK

Kenneth O'Donnell, Kennedy's appointments secretary, already has cleared his White House desk, and there is speculation the job may go to Horace Busby, a former Texas newspaperman who has often helped Johnson on speech writing.

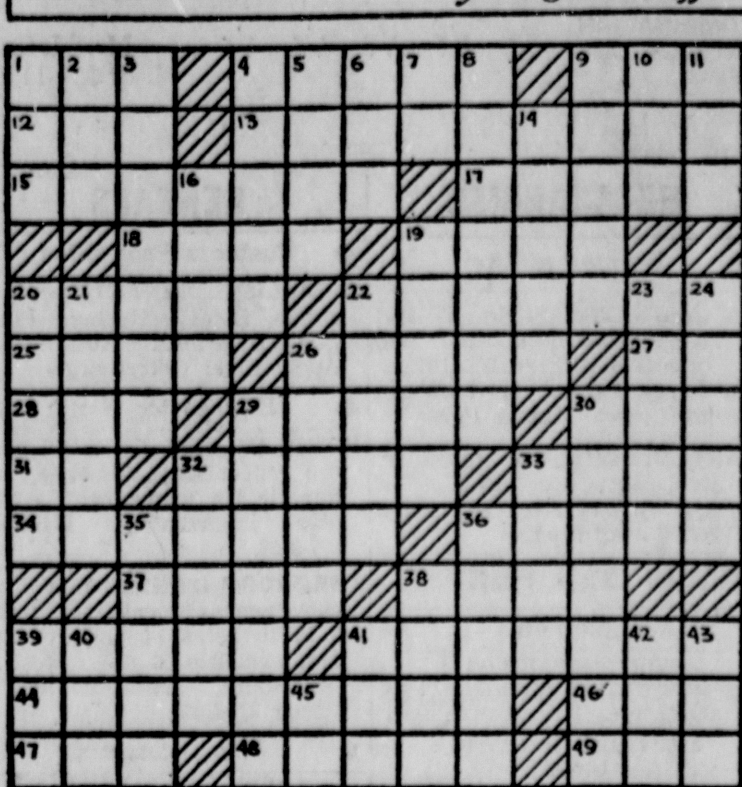

White House sources say that Johnson will retain McGeorge Bundy, Kennedy's special assistant for national security affairs.

The White House denies reports that Johnson has accepted the resignation of liberal historian Arthur Schlesinger Jr., a Kennedy assistant and speech writer.

Most observers expect White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger to leave. A reliable source, out of "decency and politeness," the word churches.

WINNIE MARKS 89TH BIRTHDAY ON SATURDAY

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill, still fond of a hearty meal and a good cigar, will be 89 Saturday.

"He's feeling very fit," said a family spokesman, "better than in a long time."

Churchill dined Thursday night with London's exclusive The Other Club, which he and Lord Birkenhead founded in 1911. Its members get together solely to indulge their taste for good food, drink and conversation.

PRESIDES AT DINNER

Churchill presided at the dinner for 20 men. The menu included smoked salmon, oysters, dressed crab, filet of sole, saddle of lamb, sliced pears and ice cream with chocolate sauce.

Since he broke his hip in a fall in 1962, Churchill has been much less active. His hearing is bad. Often his mind wanders back to events of long ago while he forgets those of yesterday.

But occasionally there are flashes of the brilliance and clarity of mind so characteristic of his long career, say close friends.

YEAR OF TRAGEDY

This has been a year clouded with sadness.

His oldest child, Diana, killed herself. The husband of his actress daughter, Sarah, died of a heart attack.

His happiest moment probably came when he and his wife celebrated their 55th wedding anniversary Sept. 12.

A few relatives will gather at Churchill's London home Saturday for a family celebration.

"Nothing special," said the source in Helsinki says he will be succeeded by Carl T. Rowan, now ambassador to Finland.

Rowan, 38, a Negro, joined the Kennedy administration as a deputy assistant secretary of state in 1961. He is a former reporter for the Minneapolis Tribune.

Tells Of JFK's Grief In August

BOSTON (AP) — Richard

Cardinal Cushing has described the late President John F. Kennedy's tearful farewell to his son, Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, who died last August less than two days after his birth.

"I'll never forget the day we buried his little child from the chapel," the Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston said Thursday.

"Jack was the last to leave the chapel. I followed him. 'The little casket containing the body was at the head of the aisle. 'Jack put his arms around the casket as if he wanted to carry it with him. Then the tears watered his cheeks.'" family spokesman, "yet very special as all 89th birthdays must be."

"The World's Greatest Showman"

Claudette Colbert says she's almost afraid to watch the special program about Cecil B. DeMille Sunday evening (December 1, NBC, 8:30 p.m.) for fear that scenes from her 30-year-old Cleopatra may be out of style. But even if they are, she isn't. Lovely as ever, she's currently starring in a Broadway comedy.

By RUTH E. THOMPSON
Once upon a time there was a movie genius who made a spectacular about an Egyptian queen that made a fortune. Naturally, its name was "Cleopatra." His was Cecil B. De Mille.
"His pictures usually did make money, you know," said De Mille's velvet-voiced Serpent of the Nile, the perpetually enchanting Claudette Colbert whom a West Coast critic, after comparing both versions, last week wrote, "A better Cleopatra for her day than Liz Taylor is in hers."

"'Cornnn-y' I used to tell him . . . but he knew what he was doing. And you always did things his way. Still, I'm going to be a little afraid to watch the program for fear they'll be using sequences that may prove pretty dated in style."

"The Program" is the special 90-minute color documentary on De Mille titled "The World's Greatest Showman" which is pre-empting everything between 8:30 and 10 p.m. on NBC Sunday (December 1).

committed this season to dazzling Broadway with eight performances a week of the hit comedy "Irregular Verb to Love," will be represented on the NBC special only by vintage clips. However, a number of other big names who starred for De Mille will be on "live" including Gloria Swanson, Charlton, Heston, James Stewart and Betty Hutton. Appearing, too, will be Evangelist Dr. Billy Graham, who'll comment on De Mille's Bible epics.

PROMOTION STUNTS

Remembering that James Stewart and Betty Hutton considered it such a privilege "to work for C. B." that they staged promotion stunts to get into "Greatest Show on Earth" (in which he was not recognizable and she had to risk her shoulder socket swinging from a trapeze) I wondered how Claudette Colbert got her first De Mille job.
"Could hardly have been easier," she said curling up in a quilted flowery robe in her dressing room at the Ethel Barrymore Theater. "He just asked me if I wanted to be Poppea in 'The Sign of the Cross.'" She thought it would be great to be wicked but was so much in demand she could work on "Sign" only on alternate days. (If I'm not mistaken, it was George M. Cohan's only movie, "Vanising President" that had custody of her the rest of the week.)

"Then each of us got a jolt.

I wasn't used to stripping." (The costume seems to have covered less territory, torso-wise, than our current bikinis.) For his part he was used to fleshier heroines and she was new era . . . streamlined and sleek.

"Then the Hayes Office did something about the costume, added a jewelled belt which at least covered my navel. Before you knew it I was slinking on a couch, stroking De Mille's pet leopard, Ecky, with a peacock feather.

She also appeared in one of the few "non-typical De Mille pictures — 'Four Frightened People.' It just wasn't his dish." She concludes that not only did he handle the huge canvas and cast of thousands "like no else" he also needed it. Be believed in building scenes and then milking them.

SHAPED THE TIMES

"But he shaped the times, very much too. Henry Wilcoxin's rugged features were not standard for heroes at the time, but they became so." (Wilcoxin, who continued to star in DeMille Epics until the day after Pearl Harbor when he became the first Hollywood figure to enlist, turned to producing after the war . . . but still under the De Mille banner. Wilcoxin, incidentally, is co-producer of "The World's Greatest Showman" which also marks his television debut.)

World's Greatest

Our interview was interrupted twice, the first for a backstage visit from Miss Colbert's high school English teacher, Mrs. Avery. (The Paris-born actress grew up in New York City.) Then, still bubbling and gracious, she apologized for pattering off for a glass of water — not to drink, but in which to soak a painfully squashed hand. I was all for cutting the interview short when I realized what an extra ordeal it posed, but she was all for carrying on and she did.

EQUALLY FACILE

De Mille, as she sums him up, left his mark on motion pictures because he threw himself wholeheartedly into his work. He was not "so sophisticated about spectacle that he patronized it, and he insisted, 'You've got to spell things out.'"

And talk about leaving marks on motion pictures, who can top Claudette Colbert? Equally facile with light comedy and heavy drama one wishes she'd find a part she likes, and be talked into making some new ones.

"Oh, I love movies, but I do like the stage, too. While I was rebuilding our new-old house in Barbadoes (the termites, though we didn't know it, had gotten there first) I kept reading scripts. There was nothing that wouldn't bore me to death for film opportunities and I have to like what I'm doing. Then 'The Irregular Verb To Love' came along as a Broadway possibility and Cyril Ritchard wanted to direct it. But that wasn't enough for me, and I finally agreed only if he'd also costar."

HAS RICH VOICE

It should be required of all acting students that they attend and find out what real actors can do with their roles. Her rich voice is so beautifully placed she seems to be talking in a conversational tone, but it projects to the very last row. (Since she's in "The Hall of Fame of the World's Best Dressed Women" her wardrobe and chic are something else to inspire fledgling actresses.)

She's living now in a Manhattan penthouse. "We sold our big Hollywood house, moved half the furniture to Barbadoes and half to the smaller rented house Doctor is using." Her husband, noted surgeon Dr. Joel Pressman, is also head of the Department of Head and Neck at the University of California, makes flying visits whenever he can.

I walked away from the theater in the rain straight into a stage door johnny with an armful of roses for the sometime-Cleopatra who's an all-time great lady.

TRACKS EVENTS

Bud Palmer, returning again to NBC sports specials early in 1964, has been announced as commentator for 90-minute telecasts of what are considered two of the outstanding events of the U.S. indoor track season; The Los Angeles Times Indoor Games and the National AAU Indoor Track and Field Championships.

Both programs will be taped a week prior to telecast with the Los Angeles meet air-dated for Saturday, February 12 (4:30-6 p.m.) and the AAU event (which will have taken place at Madison Square Garden) air-dated for February 29.

QUICK START

Stephen Brooks, who landed the role of "Dr. Lowry" Zina Bethune's love interest on "The Nurses," graduated from the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in April, 1962.

WON BY A NOSE

Horace McMahon, veteran actor currently on the Jackie Gleason Show, owes his show business start to a high school football accident, which broke his nose and changed its shape. A Yonkers stock company was casting a prize fighter back in 1927 . . . and though Horace (then a law student) had no acting experience, he had the looks.

WESTERN VETERAN

Smiley Burnette, now a steady on television in "Petticoat Junction," appeared in 64 Durango Kid pictures with Charles Starrett. On the side he has written some 350 songs, half of which were used in westerns in which he appeared.

DIDN'T WANT DOUBLE

"Anything she can do, I can do better" got to be Bobby Diamond's motto when "Fury" producers initially insisting on using a double for him in stunt riding scenes. Unfortunately they chose a girl who is a classmate of Bobby's. He couldn't stand the ribbing . . . and, since he's a good rider, is now allowed to do his own daredevil stunts.

Woman, 105, Gets Card From Kennedy

SPOKANE, Wash. (AP)—Jennie D. Bassett turned 105 Tuesday, and relatives say she got "lots and lots" of cards, cakes and flowers.

But one of Mrs. Bassett's most treasured remembrances is a birthday card from the White House signed by the late President John F. Kennedy. It was postmarked in Washington, D.C., Friday, Nov. 22, the day the president was assassinated in Dallas.

SECOND GENERATION

Like his late father, Eric Von Stroheim Jr. is interested in directing, and is currently an assistant director on "The Lieutenant" series.

"If I gain 30 pounds," says 277-pound 'Bonanza's' Dan Blocker, "it's the same as a hundred pound woman gaining 10 pounds. He's been fighting and losing the battle (not the weight) since birth when he checked into the world at 14 pounds.
